Proposed by Councillor Hawley; seconded by Councillor Hart. All agreed.

21. STRATEGIC DIRECTION

To approve the final five-year Strategy, following a period of public consultation.

The Chief Officer stated that the document had been amended following a period of public consultation.

Proposed by Councillor Jones to accept the document as a final document; seconded by Councillor Harper. All agreed.

22. TO RECEIVE AN UPDATE ON SHARED PROSPERITY FUNDING

The Chief Officer confirmed she had submitted a bid for the works to be completed on the visitor centre; this would be solar panels on the roof, investigation of the water turbine and the creation of a Men Shed. Councillor Jones advised the Chief Officer that the Friends Group had completed quite a lot of work on the water turbine.

The Chief Officer explained that part of the grant stipulation was to meet with the Support Staffordshire representative, which took place today.

The Chief Officer reported that the signed document in relation to the Town Hall frontage had been received; this means that capital and revenue spend can progress in relation to the Town Hall frontage and pedestrianisation.

Councillor Kisicki joined the meeting at 6.41pm

The Chief Officer would put together a list of projects that could be completed before any Shared Prosperity Funding needed to be spent. Councillors should advise of any potential projects.
